WEBINAR ON DIGITAL PAYMENT AND FINANCIAL LITERACY BY NPCI

On 3rd of July, 2021, a webinar was organised by National Payment corporation of India (NPCI) for the Pragyan Faculty members. Mr Raj Kumar, The resource person from NPCI presented an enriching presentation on the theme, " Digital payment and financial literacy". The session aimed to acquaint the faculty members with various digital payment products like UPI, BHIM, RuPay etc which are indigenous products of NPCI. A detailed presentation on UPI, BHIM and RuPay offered in-depth explanation of benefits of using digital mode of payment and various security precautions that one must undertake to avoid any kind of online payment fraud. Videos containing easy steps to download and use various digital payment platforms were shown. Teachers put up various queries which were patiently answered by the resource person. We take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt thanks to one of our parents, Mr Gaurav Loomba who assisted us in organising this enriching webinar.

The screenshot displays a Zoom meeting interface with a presentation slide titled "Security on Card" and "SAFETY TIPS FOR CARD SECURITY". The slide is presented by NPCI (National Payments Corporation of India) and features the RuPay logo with the tagline "AS GOOD AS CASH". The slide lists several safety tips for card users, including:

- Register your mobile number and email id with your bank to get instant SMS alerts on any transactions.
- Never share your card PIN, Mobile PIN or Internet Banking password with any one. Beware of Fraudsters who pretend to be bank officials and ask your password and account details.
- Memorise your Debit Card PIN. Never write the Debit Card PIN behind the card or anywhere else.
- Cover the ATM keypad with your hand while entering the ATM PIN, so that no one else is able to see it.
- Keeping in mind the safety measures, ensure that you personally enter your ATM PIN on the shopkeeper's PCS machine.
- Keep checking your bank account statement at regular intervals.
- Keep changing your ATM PIN and Online passwords from time to time. You can change your Debit Card PIN at any bank's ATM.
- Remember to collect your card after every transaction.
- If your card gets lost, stolen or if you have any doubt about your card being misused, contact your bank's customer service center immediately (The details of which are mentioned at the back of your card).

The slide also includes a list of safety tips for RuPay card users, such as:

- Ask for RuPay Debit Card and PIN from your bank branch.
- Memorise your ATM PIN and never share it with anyone.
- Activate your debit card at the ATM by doing a simple transaction. Checking your account balance through the internet.
- Hold onto your card at the point of purchase/acceptor at the time of bill payment.
- The merchant/acceptor will ask you to enter your PIN.
- Enter your ATM PIN accurately on the PIN machine.
- Collect the receipt and successful payment.
- Check for "Payment successful" message on your mobile phone.

The slide also mentions that RuPay is "Accepted at all merchants, online sites and ATMs" and provides a list of icons representing various services like Shopping, Education, Healthcare, and more.

The second screenshot shows a presentation slide titled "Aeps- BHIM AADHAAR". The slide is presented by NPCI and features the RuPay logo. The slide includes the following text:

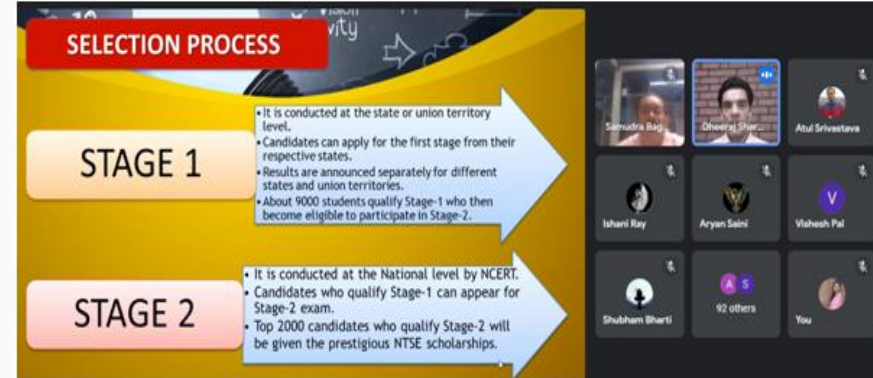

BHIM Aadhaar Pay is a "merchant application" that is available on Google Play Store for download on android mobile phones. These mobile phones can also be integrated with a finger print scanner.

BHIM Aadhaar Pay allows merchants to accept the Aadhaar of the customer as a payment instrument for the purchase of goods and services.

The screenshots also show the Zoom meeting interface with participants' video thumbnails and the Zoom control bar at the bottom.
