WEEKLY CIRCULAR SENIOR

4th AUGUST 2023
(CIR/PS/93/2023-24)

BOOK FAIR

Book Fair in collaboration with Scholastic India, is being held for three days from 3rd August to 5th August. The fair aims to ignite students' imagination, expand their knowledge and cultivate a lifelong passion for reading. Children have the opportunity to explore an extensive collection of books ranging from classic tales to modern adventure.

PSYCHOMETRIC TESTING: CLASS X

To identify the aptitude, skills, and knowledge of students of class X, psychometric testing was conducted from 27th July, 2023 to 1st August, 2023. Psychometric tests focus on a student's mental, psychological and emotional ability towards a particular area. It has proven to be ideal in helping the students to think and plan a suitable career for themselves. This works by helping the students of class X identify, and understand their strengths and weakness in school, and guide them to choose the most suitable stream for their class XI-XII. David Battery of Differential Abilities (DBDA) was selected as the most appropriate aptitude psychometric test for understanding the skills, and aptitude of the students, that would eventually help them to narrow down their stream/subject options.

WORKSHOP

INTACH organised a FILMIT Workshop to discover the best talents in film making among students. The workshop was attended by Anshuman, Kumar Raghuvansham, Arhat Kumar and Ayaan Bhatnagar from class IX at Lodhi Estate on 25th and 28th August 2023. An introductory session by Ms.Purnima Dutt (Director, HECS) focused on spreading heritage and cultural awareness among today's youth. This was followed by an informative session on the varied themes of movie making. The students were told about themes and techniques relating to family traditions, conservation of water, flora and fauna of the state/ nearby areas and heritage occupations. They also saw clips of films made by students through the years of FILMIT's existence. This workshop helped students explore and learn about different techniques of taking shots. They also learned about new terms associated with production. Later, they were briefed about the various shooting angles like, from front to over the shoulders, high to low, and panoramic angles.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS CLUB

On 3rd August 2023, in the spirit of athletics and collaboration, the Health and Wellness Club organized a March Past practice session for grades IX-XII. It teaches discipline, coordination, and respect. The children actively understood the instructional beats and marched in place. By marching in step with others, students learn to cooperate and move in unison.

ECOLOGY CLUB

No matter how complex global problems may seem, it is we ourselves who have given rise to them. They cannot be beyond our power to resolve.”

TIP OF THE WEEK

TEACHING CHILDREN ABOUT PERSONAL ACCOUNTABILITY

Teaching accountability to children is very important so they learn to take responsibility for their actions. This is an easier task with the right amount of love, structure and guidance. Here's how to start.

Let your kids know their responsibilities.

To ensure there's no confusion, sit down with your child and make a list of their responsibilities.

Be consistent.

When teaching accountability, consistently integrate it into your child's behavior and routine.

Give children age-appropriate chores.

This is associated with social, emotional and academic benefits and makes children more self-reliant.

Show children how to change their behavior.

Teaching children personal responsibility is not about punishing or disciplining them – it's about teaching them to make amends for intentional or unintentional behavior.

Set an example.

The best way to teach children about personal accountability is by being accountable yourself.
